Indian Tourism Board in association with Experience e Indian Society has launched the ‘Incredible India’ campaign to attract upscale tourists from across the world. For the first time, the Ministry of Tourism (MoT) has presented the country’s tourist destinations as one brand presenting all the Indian states. Ogilvy and Mather, advertising agency, has helped to release powerful print and electronic advertisements. To create brand awareness and attract global tourists, it has launched television commercials on premium channels like CNN, Discovery, BBC and Travel. Moreover, it has released advertisement through the print media in popular publications like Vogue and Financial Times.

The tourism board has also launched an online campaign involving contests on popular web sites like MSN, Google, and Yahoo. The tourism board conducted a global media meet inviting travel writers across the world to communicate the developments in Indian Tourism. The opening up of airline industry also helped to attract more customers by making air travel more affordable. These activities undertaken by the tourism board have establish India as a single product with attractive and rich culture. Thus, India is rated among the top ten destination spots by global tourists and this increased its market share in tourism among other Asian countries like Malaysia, Singapore, Hong Kong and China.

A. Suggests some unique ideas (with reasons for recommending) to Ministry of Tourism (MoT) on how you can increase the tourists flow in India, without compromising the service quality.

B. From the aforesaid case how will you enhance the services presently offered to the tourist by considering the extended P’s?

FedEx is one of the world's leading transportation, logistics and supply chain management companies. The company's main focus has been on providing innovative and value added services to its customers. For instance, FedEx pioneered the launch of two new services for its Chinese customers – the Asia One and the North American Next Day Delivery. The new services enabled customers in Beijing, Shanghai, Guangzhou, Shenzhen and other neighboring cities to deliver the packages to 15 Asian cities (through Asia One) and major US and Canadian cities (through North American Next Day Delivery) on the next working day. As a result FedEx became the only company in China to offer such services.

A. As a manager of a Logistics company identify the key success factor for FedEx and link those factors with the concept of Service Marketing.

B. What Relationship Marketing strategy did FedEx used to capture the Chinese market?
