One of the most popular food of all times is Chocolate. People now a days eat chocolate in many different forms. We eat chocolate candy, and we drink hot and cold chocolate drink. The chocolate we eat today is made from a lot of different ingredients, but the main ingredient is cocoa beans. The story of cocoa beans and its journey to stores and supermarkets started a hundreds of years ago in Maxico. Cocoa tree needs hot and humid weather and they originally grew in Yucantan Peninsulae. The Maya were the first people to eat cocoa beans. They picked cocoa beans from wild trees and cleared land for cultivating their own trees. They exchanged the beans for other goods. They also used them for religious ceremonies.

Mayan merchants introduced cocoa beans to Aztec people. Soon cocoa beans became part of Aztec lives. They used it as money. For 10 beans you could buy a rabbit, for 100 beans you could buy a slave. The Aztec could not grow cocoa trees so they conquered Maya.
